mLINQS Hires Steve Kovalenko to Direct Business Development for Federal Employee Relocation

FAIRFAX, VA – (October 2, 2018) – mLINQS, LLC today announced that Stephen E. Kovalenko has joined the company as its Director of Business Development. In this position, he is now responsible for account management and customer expansion of the company’s industry-leading system to manage federal agency employee relocation worldwide. Mr. Kovalenko previously worked for 22 years with FranklinCovey Company as its Enterprise Client Partner for the Departments of the Navy, Air Force, and Homeland Security.

“Steve Kovalenko has an unprecedented record of success,” said mLINQS President Greg McIntyre. “His consistency for effectively serving the needs of federal agencies and their employees will prove invaluable to the growth of mLINQS. Steve is a most welcome new member of our team.”

“My intent is to bring an even higher degree of enthusiasm for business development and customer engagement to mLINQS,” said Steve Kovalenko. “I firmly believe we can help government agencies to more cost-effectively streamline mission-critical staff relocations, and ease any burden on employees at the same time.” In his previous position, Mr. Kovalenko received more than 19 awards for his professionalism, and was a charter member of the FranklinCovey elite $20 million club. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in American Studies from Brigham Young University, and also has earned an MBA in International Management from Thunderbird, The American Graduate School of International Management.

Mr. Kovalenko’s new responsibilities with mLINQS include working closely with the existing client base, while supporting development of new accounts. In addition, he will be deeply involved with evaluating client recommendations for system improvements. This system, moveLINQ, is currently used to support relocation expense management for the employees of over 40 federal agencies, including 11 of the 15 federal executive departments.
